Should Boston matrons be called Mother Hub-bards?

THE PROMISE KEPT.—The following from an exchange is worth reading. A mother, on the green hills of Vermont, was holding by her right hand a son sixteen years old, mad with the love of the sea. And as she stood by the garden gate one morning; she said: "Edward, they tell me, for I never saw the ocean, that the great temptation of a seaman's life is to drink. Promise me, before you quit your mother's hand, that you will never drink." "And," said he, (for he told me the story,) "I gave her the promise, and I went the broad globe over, Calcutta and the Mediterranean, San Francisco, the cape of Good Hope the North Pole and the South, I saw them all in forty years, and I never saw a glass filled with sparkling liquor that my mother's form by the gate did not rise before me; and to-day I am innocent of the taste of liquor." Was not that sweet evidence of the power of a single word? Yet this was not half. "For," said he, "yesterday there came into my counting room a man of 40 years and asked me, 'Do you know me?' 'No.'

'Well,' said he 'I was once brought drunk into your presence on shipboard; you were a passenger; the captain kicked me aside; you took me to your berth and kept me there till I had slept off the intoxication; you then asked me if I had a mother. I said I had never known a word from her lips. You told me of yours at the garden gate, and to day I am master of one of the finest packets in New York; and I came to ask you to come and see me."

FAYETTEVILLE.—We learn from the Fayetteville Eagle that Bro. Brooks, State Lecturer, delivered an earnest and entertaining address in that town, on Monday evening the 16th inst., before a large and intelligent audience, mostly composed of young men and youths, and that at the conclusion of the address a Council of Friends of Temperance was organized by a large number of persons who were in the Hall and a subsequent meeting at the Methodist Church was appointed for the election of officers. It will be a matter of general congratulation to the public, says the Eagle, to learn that an efficient organization of the kind has been formed in this town, with the intention of exercising a good and pure moral influence upon those persons whose age and associations subject them to temptations to dissipation. Drunkenness is growing to be the great overshadowing curse of the land, and good citizens should lend all movements looking to its voluntary abolition their full and enthusiastic countenance and support.

ANIMATED NATURE.

BY JINGO.

THE ANT iz the unkle of all his little neffewses and neeces. Solomin refers to the ant in the scripters.—He sus, ses he, go to the ant thou sluggard. He doubtless ment them that wanted to git off tite butes which can be effected by standing in an ants' nest. The ant resembles ritches in one respec. He sometimes take wing's and fly away—tu which he is always welcome.

THE WHALE iz unusually employed in the ile business. He has the satisfaction of knowing that he iz the biggest fish in the sea. And if there iz any bigger fish, he's which. The whale once tuck a dose of Jonah, but it proved such a powerful emetic that he couldn't retain him on his stomick. He struck ile, which was effectual.

THE SNAKE was created fuss in the order of creation, but he created such a fuss in the garden of Eden that he iz now the tail eend of all humanity. The snake usually gets his head bruised by the children of men, when he shows it. This rool does not apply to the black snake. If you suckceed in touching the black snakes tail with a nine foot rail you du well.

THE REDBUG delights in entering your flesh but you "kant see it." When the redbug was made material was scarce, or he wood have been made larger.

THE ALYGATER iz a cross betwixt the soff shell turtle and the cross-cut saw. He inherited the pecooliarities of the one and the teeth of the other. The alygator will lay all day on a log waitin tu show you how he can dive. His principle diet iz lightwood, hogg and dogg; his affeckshin for the latter, are not however reciprocated.

PAT AND THE POST OFFICE CLERK.

'Faith, an' have ye a letter for me yer honor?'

'What name?' asked the urbane official.

'Why, me own name, av course Whose else?'

'What's your name?' continued the official, still urbane.

'Faith an' it was my father's also me; an' would be yet, but he's gone dead.'

'Confound you what do you call yourself!' losing his temper.

'Bedad,' said Pat, firmly, 'I call meself a gentleman, an' it's pity there ain't two of us.'

'Stand back!' commanded the official with dighity.

'The divil aback I'll stand until I gets me letther.'

'How can I give it to you if you won't tell me who you are stupid, thick-headed bog-trotter.'

'An' is that what you're paid for—abusin' honest people that comes for their rights? Gi' me the letther, or be the whiskers o' Kate Kerney's cat, I'll cast me vote agin you when I git me paper.'

'You blundering blockhead,' broke in the now really angry clerk, 'can't you tell me how your letter is addressed?

'Dressed? How should it be dressed barrin' in a sheet of paper, like any other? Come; hand me, avic.'

'The deuce take you! won't you tell me who you are?'

'Faith, I'm an Irishman bred and born, seed, breed and generation. Me father was cousin to one eyed Harry Mawra, the process-sarver; an' me moother belonged to the Mooneys, of Kilmathonad. You're an ignorant ould disciple; an' av you'll only creep out of yer hole, I'll welt yer hide like an old shoe. An' av yer get any satisfaction out o' me, me name's not Barney O'Flynn.'

'Oh! that's your name, is it?' said the satisfied official, seizing and shuffling a pile of letters. 'There's your letter.'

PACHES WID LEGS.—On board the steamship San Jacinto, which went ashore on Body Island while on her trip from New York to Savannah, a few weeks since, were two sons of Erin, who, with the other passengers, succeeded in landing safely. While exploring the island they came across a peach tree. One ascended the tree to shake the peaches down, and while up there he found a small tree rog which he swallowed, and called down

"Yerra, Paddy, have paches got legs?"

"No," replied his companion.

"Then, be gorra, I've swallowed a straddle bug."

Hard on the bug, that.

JOSH BILLINGS ON HENS.

The best time to set a hen iz when the hen iz ready. I kant tell what the best breed is, but the Shanghigh iz the meanest. It costs az much tu bord one az it dos a stage hoss, and you might as well try tu fatt a famin mill by runnin oats thru it. There aint no profit in keeping a hen for his eggs, if he laz less than one a day.—Hens iz very long lived if they don't kontract the throat dizease. There is a great many goes to pot every year by this melancholy disease. I kant tell eggzactly how tu pick out a good hen; but as a general thing, the long eared ones I know are the least apt tu skratch up a garden. Eggz packed in ekal partz of salt and lime will keep from 20 to 30 years, if the are not disturbed. Fresh beef steak iz good for henz. I suppose 4 or 5 pounds a day is all a hen would require at fust. I shall be happy to advise you at any time on the hen question and take it in eggs.

A LADY passing along the street one morning last week, noticed a little boy scattering salt upon the sidewalk.

"Well, I am sure," said the lady, "this is real benevolence."

"No it aint," said the boy it's real salt."

Goldsborough News.

WEDNESDAY SEPT. 1, 1869.

New York Fashions.

NEWPORT, September, 1869.

This charming watering-place is this year as in years past the most exclusive and aristocratic in the Union. The richest people are here in the greatest numbers, the equipages are the most imposing, the dressing the most lavish and at the same time the most artistic. Even the young men here dress as befits the escorts of such birds-of-Paradise looking belles. The usual costume for young gentlemen is white duck or light cloth pants, black, green, purple or golden brown velvet coat made sack shape with large and well worked pockets, vest of white Turkish Towel cloth, Sailor hat of straw with wide ribbons—bright kid gloves.

Ladies here frequently order their costumes from New York. This is found to be a better plan than taking several trunks along at the beginning of the season, for in this way the freshest styles can be exploited—and even hits of styles to be, such as are constantly coming over from Paris, can be embodied. The lady sends her measure and order, in a few days she has her suit. The following is an out door costume for damp days, made at the Metropolitan Furnishing Rooms: A suit of the new water proof material in shot colors, violet and golden brown. This was very simple but at the same time very stylishly made. The skirt was short and round, and faced around the bottom with a bias facing of the same, stitched on the Grover & Baker machine with a double row of brown silk same shade as the brown in the dress and between them a row of stitching in silk. A small tight fitting basque accompanied it, the waist of the skirt was finished to match the bottom so that it could be worn over the basque as well as under it, and thus have the effect of a round waist, the bottom of the basque and the sleeves were trimmed with bias bands stitched to match the waist and bottom. For occasions when greater warmth might be required the tunic could be worn. This tunic was a very happy compromise between a Watteau casaque and a Mackintosh wrap. The fronts were sack shape, the sleeves being formed of the half-cape were loose and large, but the backs instead of having the plain night-gown look of the Mackintosh was pleated on at the neck in two box pleats and allowed to fall a la Watteau—a belt of brown leather stitched in fancy pattern on the machine was slipped through large button-holes formed in the seams of the half-cape sleeves and again in and out of a couple made under the Watteau pleat, thus allowing that and the sleeves to fall gracefully and free, and causing the front and the sides of the back to fit themselves to the figure. If desired, the edges of the tunic on each side of the fall might be looped up and thus effect a panier puff.

Another was a reception dress for chilly days. There are many such days always on the sea coast, though here fewer than elsewhere, owing to the peculiar geographical position of this island. This costume will give an idea of styles later in the season. It has a very heavy black silk with black velvet revers at the side. The fronts of the dress were of black velvet cut to fit the figure, and open to show the petticoat beneath. They are fastened pretty close together with black velvet bows, the sleeves are loose Pagodas striped with black velvet which formed battlements as a trimming. Accompanying this is a thin silk bodice, high necked, with tight fitting sleeves to be worn under it and a long narrow slip of the same to be buttoned up the front in imitation of a petticoat, the button holes are worked on tapes sewed on the inside of the dress, and the buttons which are of blue silk are sewn on the silk strips—the same style of buttons fasten the under waist, which is so beautifully fashioned and finished, that on warmer days, it can be worn over a white skirt when the slip that belongs up the front may be used to loop the upper skirts en panier—the buttons which are for use in one instance being for ornament in another. Blue satin slippers should be worn with it with white skirts. The back of this fell from the neck in the Watteau pleat, now so much affected—and an ornament of blue cord and black chenile held it down on the neck to about the depth of a yoke. A more effective mode of making many and distinguished looking toilets at a small outlay could not well be devised. We are glad to see the old fashion of trimming silk with velvet revived. Velvet is one of the few trimmings which it pays to purchase and to pay even a high price for. JAPONICA.

SOME DIFFERENCE.—We learn that the Judges of the Supreme Court made an estimate that their decision in the late railroad cases would reduce the taxes to be paid 27 cents from the gross amount. But the Public Treasurer in his Circular issued to the sheriffs, states the deduction at only 8½ cents. This is a wide difference and might be well enough to inquire into.—Statesville American.

The above paragraph is copied by nearly every paper in the State. We have before stated that the Governor and Council examined the decision of the Supreme Court in the University R. R. case, and concluded that it relieved taxes to the amount of 8½ cents. This interpretation was concurred in by every Justice of the Supreme Court. Acting upon it, the Public Treasurer issued the circular above referred to. If persons attempt to evade the payment of the tax, they will only involve themselves in useless trouble and expense. Papers that have copied the item from the American may save their readers some trouble by publishing this statement. —Standard.

A NEW WAY TO MAKE BUTTER.—A singular method of making butter has lately come into quite extensive use in France, based upon the observed fact that cream is changed into butter by being simply buried in the earth. The theory of this result is not very intelligible, though the fact is stated to be beyond question; and in Normandy and other parts of France, butter is actually prepared on a large scale in this way. The process consists in placing the cream in a linen bag of moderate thickness, which is carefully closed; then burying the bag about a foot and a half deep in the earth and allowing it to remain from twenty-four to twenty-five hours. After the expiration of this period the cream is found to have become hard, and it is then broken up by means of a wooden beater into small pieces, and enough water poured upon it to wash out the buttermilk. To prevent any mixture of earth, it is advisable to enclose the bag in a second one of larger size and coarser quality. This method of making butter saves a great deal of labor, and separates the butter more perfectly than the ordinary process; and it is stated that butter thus prepared is of most excellent quality.

UNITED STATES REVENUE STAMPS AND HOW TO USE THEM.—Though we have for some time been living under the rule of stamps, the question is one of every day asking: "How much of a stamp does this require?" The following embraces, it is said, the most general use of stamps as applied to manufacturers and particular classes of business that pay a special tax:

All notes and evidences of debt, five cents on each $100; if under $100, five cents; if over $100, five cents on each $100 or part thereof.—All receipts for any amount, without limit, over $20, two cents; if under $20, nothing. Checks of any amount, two cents. All deeds and deeds of trust fifty cents on each $500 in value of the property conveyed or the amount secured; when a deed of trust is fully stamped the note secured need not be; but they should be endorsed to show the reason why. Mortgage bonds need not be stamped if stamps are affixed to the mortgage. All the appraisements, estates or estrays, five cents on each piece of paper. Affidavits of every description are exempt from stamp duty. Acknowledgments to deeds, &c., are also exempt. Contracts and agreements, five cents for each sheet or piece of paper, except for rents or when for rent, fifty cents for each $300 of rent or less, if over $300, fifty cents for each additional $200, or fractional part thereof in excess of $300. Any person interested can affix or cancel stamps.

A USEFUL TABLE.—To aid farmers in arriving at accuracy in estimating the amount of land in different fields under cultivation, the following table is given by an agricultural cotemporary:

5 yds wide by 968 yds long contain 1 acre.
10 yds wide by 484 yds long contain 1 acre.
20 yds wide by 242 yds long contain 1 acre.
40 yds wide by 121 yds long contain 1 acre.
80 yds wide by 60½ yds long contain 1 acre.
70 yds wide by 69½ yds long contain 1 acre.
60 feet wide by 726 feet long contain 1 acre.
110 feet wide by 369 feet long contain 1 acre.
120 feet wide by 363 feet long contain 1 acre.
220 feet wide by 198 feet long contain 1 acre.
240 feet wide by 181½ feet long contain 1 acre.

A Perilous Adventure at Niagara Falls.

BUFFALO, N. Y., August 26.—Prof. Jenkins, in the presence of an immense crowd of spectators, crossed the gorge below Niagara Falls yesterday, on a machine of his own invention, without velocipede motion.—The machine is a bicycle, and turned upside down would resemble in some degree a velocipede. The wheels, three inches wide, are made heavy and of wood, without tires, but in their places are grooves one and three-quarter inches deep. The front wheel is three feet two inches, and the hind wheel two feet ten inches in diameter. The connecting rods are iron, so also the balance pole, which is eight feet long and tipped with ten-pound balls, and weighs twenty-eight pounds. The whole thing, with the man, weighs 295 pounds. The propelling power is a pinion cog-wheel, made of brass, about nine inches in diameter, which is made to gear to cogs which surround the front wheel at the bottom of the groove.—The two-inch hemp cable was fastened immovably on the American shore but on the Canada shore coiled around a windlass to facilitate tightening.—The defection of the rope was about thirty feet. The machine moved slowly forward, the rope swaying gently from side to side until the rider had passed out about thirty feet, after which he crawled along at a snail's pace to the middle of the abyss, where he raised and waved his hat. From the centre to the American shore it was evidently hard work to propel the bicycle. The time occupied in passing over the rope was just eleven minutes.

Extract from a Private Letter from Hawaii, Sandwich Islands.

* * * * * Although the eruption is not so violent now, the volcano is a fearful sight to behold. The rivers of lava still flow, and the smoke from the crater ascends in awful majesty. During this volcanic upheavat it has been very sickly here. A peculiar sort of low malarious fever, which has grown out of the foul condensed vapors of the volcano, has prevailed to an alarming extent, and at one time it was feared it would depopulate the island. But fortunately a sea captain (calling here for supplies) distributed PLANTATION BITTERS to the suffering, and quick and thorough cures were the result. The news spread like wild-fire.—Messrs. Ching-Takin & Co., Commission Merchants, had these Bters for sale. In a short time their store was beseiged and their supply exhausted. A steamer was dispatched to San Francisco by order of the Hospital Department, and a new and enormous supply obtained as soon as possible. From that moment the scourge was stayed. Not another fatal case occurred, and the epidemic has now entirely disappeared. * * * Is this wonderful remedy known in your city? I hope so, for it is a sure cure for all fevers and miasmatic sickness. You may tell your friends so for me.

CHOLERA.

A Cure for this Disease may be found in the use of PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER.

I have used the medicine known as PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER in my family for the last twelve months, and have great pleasure in testifying to its very valuable properties. I would not on any account be without it. During the existence of the Cholera last year I used no medicine of any sort but the Pain Killer, although myself and several members of my family were attacked by it severely, and I am happy to say that the Pain Killer was equal to every emergency; it was both a preventive and a certain cure. I consider I should not be doing my duty to the community did I not say this much. If I were attacked by the Cholera to day, the Pain Killer would be the only remedy I should use. I have thoroughly tested it, and know it can be relied on. F. E. BERGINSEND,

SCIENCE ADVANCES.

As soon as an article purporting to be of utility has been tested, and its merits endorsed by public opinion, unprincipled parties endeavor to replenish their depleted purses by counterfeiting, and substituting a spurious for the genuine article. Some time since, mercury, in the disguise of pills, powders, &c. was given for all diseases of the stomach and liver, while quinine was freely administered for the chills. At length HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS made its advent, and an entire new system of healing was inaugurated. The beneficial effects of this valuable preparation were at once acknowledged, and mineral poisons suffered to sink into that obscurity to which an enlightened age has consigned them. There have been many spurious Bitters palmed upon the community, which, after a trial, have been found perfectly worthless, while HOSTETTER'S has proved a blessing to thousands, who owe to it their restoration to health and for many years we have watched the steady progress of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS in public estimation and its beneficient effects as a cure for all complaints arising from the stomach [illegible] it can be relied upon as a certain relief and remedy. Its proprietors have made the above preparation, after years of careful study and sifting, and are now reaping the reward claimed by this valuable specific, and which they so richly merit. It is the only preparation of the kind that is reliable in all cases, and it therefore demands the attention of the afflicted. Sept. 1, 16 1m

THE KIDNEYS.—THE KIDNEYS ARE TWO in number, situated at the upper part of the loin, surrounded by fat, and consisting of three parts, viz.: the Anterior, the Interior and the Exterior.

The anterior absorbs. Interior consists of tissues or veins, which serve as a deposit for the urine and convey it to the exterior. The exterior is a conductor also, it ruminating in a single tube, and called the Ureter. The ureters are connected with the bladder.

The bladder is composed of various coverings or tissues, divided into parts, viz: the Upper, the Lower, the Nervous, and the Mucous. The upper expels, the lower retains. Many have a desire to urinate without the ability; others urinate without the ability to retain. This frequently occurs in children.

To cure these affections, we must bring into action the muscles, which are engaged in their various functions. If they are neglected, gravel or Dropsy may ensue.

The reader must also be made aware, that however slight may be the attack it is sure to affect the bodily health and mental powers as our flesh and blood are supported from these sources.

GOUT, OR RHEUMATISM.—Pain occurring in the loins is indicative of the above diseases. They occur in persons of dissolute habits, stomach and chalky concretions.

THE GRAVEL.—The gravel results from neglect or improper treatment of the kidneys.—These organs being weak, the water is not expelled from the bladder, but allowed to remain; it becomes feverish, and sediment forms. It is from this deposit that the stone is formed, and gravel ensues.

DROPSY is a collection of water in some parts of the body, and bears different names, according to the parts affected, viz.: when generally diffused over the body, it is called Anasarca; when of the abdomen, Ascites; when of the chest Hydrothorax.

TREATMENT.—Helmbold's highly concentrated compound Extract Buchu is decidedly one of the best remedies for diseases of the bladder, kidneys, gravel, dropsical swellings, rheumatism, and gouty affections. Under it head we have ranged Dysuria, or difficulty and pain in passing water, scanty secretion, or small and frequent discharges of water; Strangury, or stopping of water; Hematuria, or bloody urine; Gouty and Rheumatism of the kidneys, without any change in quantity, but increase of color, or dark water. It was always highly recommended by the late Dr Physick, in these affections.

This medicine increases the power of digestion, and excites, the absorbents into healthy exercise, by which the watery, or calcareous, depositions, and all unnatural enlargements, as well as pain and inflamation, are reduced, and it is taken by men, women, and children. Directions for use and diet accompany.

PHILADELPHIA, PA. Feb. 25, 1867.

H. T. HELMBOLD, Druggist:

DEAR SIR—I have been a sufferer, for upwards of twenty years, with bowel, bladder, and kidney affections, during which time I have used various medicinal preparations and been under the treatment of the most eminent physicians, experiencing but little relief.

Having seen your preparations extensively advertised, I consulted with my family physician in regard to using your Extract Buchu.

I did this because I had used all kinds of advertised remedies, and had found them worthless, and some quite injurious; in fact, I despaired of ever getting well, and determined to use no remedies hereafter unless I knew of the ingredients. It was this that prompted me to use your remedy. As you advertised that it was composed of buchu, cubebs, and juniper berries, it occurred to me and my physician as an excellent combination, and, with his advice, after an examination of the article, and consulting again with the druggist, I concluded to try it. I commenced its use about eight months ago, at which time I was confined to my room.—From the first bottle I was astonished and gratified at the beneficial effect, and after using it three weeks, was able to walk out. I felt much like writing you a full statement of my case at that time, but thought my improvement might only be temporary, and therefore concluded to defer and see if it would effect a perfect cure, knowing then it would be of greater value to you, and more satisfactory to me.

I am now able to report that a cure is effected after using the remedy for five months.

I have not used any now for three months, and feel as well in all respects as I ever did.

Your Buchu being devoid of any unpleasant taste and odor, a nice tonic and invigorator of the system, I do not mean to be without it whenever occasion may require its use in such affections.

Mrs. Stowe's revelations concerning Lord Byron is beginning to be felt in a largely increased demand for his poems, and close observers say the demand comes mainly from a class of persons that never read them before. SALAD.—It is said that heads of salad can be produced in winter in from twenty-four to forty-eight hours by taking a box filled with rich earth, in which one-third part of slaked lime has been mixed, and watering the earth with lukewarm water; then taking lettuce seed, which has been previously softened by soaking in strong brandy twenty-four hours, and sowing in the usual way. We are assured, but will not vouch for the fact, that a good-sized head of lettuce may be obtained in the time mentioned.

"The blessed man that preached for us last Sunday," said Mrs. Partington, "served the Lord for thirty years—first as a circuss-rider, then as a locust preacher, and last as an exhauster."

IMPORTANT IF TRUE.—It is stated that a few drops of kerosene oil exposed in a room will keep of mosquitoes, and that a kerosene oil lamp left burning all night will have the same effect upon these blood-thirsty insects.

MALARIA. The decayed and decaying vegetation of newly settled lands, when damp, exhale a miasmatic poison on which, absorbed through the lungs into the blood, causes the intermittent fevers and kindred diseases, which prevail in our Western States and Territories. But this great scourge of our rich alluvial bottoms in the West, is now robbed of its sting. Doct. Ayer has discovered an antidote which effectually neutralizes its venom: has combined it in a remedy—"AYER'S AGUE CURE"—which rarely, or, as some of our neighbors say, never fails. It is reliable both for prevention and cure. With it, men may live with complete immunity from the malignant effluvia which has hitherto rendered many localities almost uninhabitable. Those suffering from CHILLS AND FEVER may find in it immediate relief, and those exposed will find sure protection from attack, by taking it in small quantities as a preventive.—[Ill. Democrat.

Railway Connections at Wilmington, North Carolina.

WILMINGTON, N. C., August 28.—The iron bridges over the northeast and northwest branches of the Cape Fear river, connecting all the railway lines centring here, are completed—the first train passing over them today. This makes the Wilmington and Weldon, Wilmington and Manchester, and Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford railroads one continuous line, with the exception of a mile and a half gap, to be finished in ten days.

THE N. C. R. & P. ESTATE AGENCY.—Many inquiries and much dissatisfaction has resulted from the postponement of the grand drawing of the N. C. Real and Personal Estate Agency, which was to have taken place on the 28th inst., and so many rumors had obtained currency, that, on Saturday morning we called on Mr. Hester, President of the Company, and on R. G. Lewis, Esq., Treasurer, for an explanation of the facts which lead to the postponement, and received in substance, the following statement:

Many of the Agents for the sale of tickets had not reported their sales nor returns, so the management could not arrange for the drawing on the day set, and do justice to ticketsholders. They further found it necessary to reduce the proportions of the scheme, and also to make a change in the arrangement of the articles included in the prize list, to conform the same to the sales of tickets. Both gentlemen named gave us assurance that there is no ground for the unfavorable rumors concerning the drawing, or the operations of the Company and that a full and satisfactory explanation will be given the public, in a day or two in relation to the whole matter. We were assured that all who are not satisfied with the explanation when given, will have their money refunded on application. We refrain from further remarks in regard to the matter, at present, and await the promised explanation.—Sentinel.

A GOOD PRICE FOR COTTON.—On Friday last, Robt. A. Martin & Co., sold for Gen. W. R. Cox, (John R. Green, Esq., Agent) of Edgecombe county, N. C., the first bale of new cotton received by them, and which was also the first new bale which was delivered at the store of any commission house here, (tho' another bale came in on the same day and on the same train), for which they got 35 cents per pound. Gen. Cox receives the premium on it offered by them for the first new bale, say $50, and half of the premium offered by the merchants jointly for the first bale from North Carolina, say $25. Two bales having come in on the same day and same train, it was decided by the party to whom the matter was referred, that the premium offered by the merchants jointly should be equally divided. Adding the premium on the bale sold by Robt. A. Martin & Co., it makes the price sixty cents per pound.—Pet. Index.

HOW TO FATTEN A POOR HORSE.

Many good horses devour large quantities of grain and hay, and still continue thin and poor. The food eaten is not properly assimilated. If the usual feed has been unground grain and hay, nothing but a change will effect any desirable alteration in the appearance of the animal. In case oil meal cannot be obtained readily, mingle a bushel of flax seed with a bushel of barley, one of oats, and another bushel of Indian corn, and let it be ground into fine meal.—This will be a fair proportion for all his feed. Or the meal of barley, oats and corn in equal quantities, may first be procured, and one-fourth part of oil cake mingled with it, when the meal is sprinkled on cut feed. Feed two or three quarts of the mixture three times daily, mingled with a peck of cut hay and straw. If the horse will eat that amount greedily, let the quantity be gradually increased until he will eat four or six quarts at every feeding, three times a day. So long as the animal will eat his allowance, the quantity may be increased a little every day. But avoid the practice of allowing a horse to stand at a rack well filled with hay. In order to fatten a horse that has run down in flesh, the groom should be very particular to feed the animal no more than he will eat up clean and lick the manger for more.

FARM PROVERBS.

Do not keep more live stock on your farm than you can keep well.

House all things as much as possible—animals, utensils, and crops.

Sell them when you can get a fair price, and do not store for rats and speculation.

The more comfortable you can keep your animals the more they will thrive.

A good cow is a valuable machine—the more food she properly digests the greater the profit.

A few roots daily to the stock are as welcome as apples to boys and girls.

Iron shoes on sleds last a lifetime. They are really cheaper in the end than wooden ones.

Replace all the bars when you pass often by strong gates, and then wonder that you didn't do so before.

Although in draining land thoroughly your purse may be drained, yer the full crops that follow will soon fill it again.

Always give the soil the first meal. If it is well fed with manure it will feed all else, plants, animals and men.

SAY, Pomp, you nigger, where you get dat new hat?"

"Why, at de shop, ob course."

"What is de price of such an article as dat?"

"I don't know, nigger—I don't know, the shopkeeper wasn't dar."

"WELL, John, did you take the note I gave you to Mr. Smithers?"

"Yes sir, I took the note, but I don't think he can read it."

"Cannot read it: why so, John?"

"Because he is so blind, sir. While I wor in the room he axed me where my hat was, and it wor on my head all the time."

A GIPSY woman promised to show two young ladies their husband's faces in a pail of water. They looked and exclaimed—

"Why, we only see our faces."

"Well," said the gipsy, "those faces will be your husbands' when you are married."

A very small pattern of a man lately solicited the hand of a fine buxom girl in marriage:

'Oh, no,' said the fair lady, 'I can't think of it for a moment. The fact is, Henry, you are a little too big to put in a cradle and a little too small to put in a bed!'

A gentleman having given a grand party, his tailor was among the company, and was thus addressed by his lordship:

'My dear sir, I remember your face, but I forgot your name.'

The tailor whispering in a low tone—'I made your breeches.'

The nobleman taking him by the hand, exclaimed:

'Major Breeches, I am happy to see you.'

"JIM'S LOST LOVE."

I met her by the seller door—
The look she give was cold and stura;
Her eyes looked pitchforks into mine—
And mine looked pison into hern.

For we had loved in days gone by;
Her daddy said that I might take her;
But, alas! for my dreme of wedded bliss,
She got up and got with a Dutch Shoemaker.

No more girls for me if I knows it—
No more frauds me luv to dim;
In the words of the poet, "Not for Joseph,"
And he might have added, "Not for Jim."

'SARCHIN' WID A LANTERN.'

Two Irishmen, stopping at the Island House, Toledo, lit their gas, and, with windows open sat down to enjoy a chat. The hungriest of Toledo musquitoes soon flocked in and drove them desperate. The clerk, who was summoned to devise some defence against them, told them to close the windows and put out the gas. They acted on the suggestion, and placed themselves between the sheets. Just as they began to doze a lightning bug, which had strayed into the room, caught the eye of one of the travelers. He roused his companion with a punch. 'Jamie, Jamie, it's no use! Here's one of the craturs sarchin' for us wid a lantern!'

A BACHELOR merchant's advice in selecting a wife, says: "get hold of a piece of calico that will wash."

A little four year old had long been vainly endeavoring to pucker his mouth into shape for the whistling of a national tune he had heard upon the streets. At last, in despair, he went to his mother, exclaiming:

"Ma, I's so little, I can't make a hole big enough for Yankee Doolam to dit out."

A son of Erin, while hunting for rabbits, come across a jackass in the woods, and shot him. "By me soul and St. Patrick," he exclaimed, "I've kilt the father of all rabbits."

Man's greatest poverty arises from his artificial wants; it is not the real necessaries of life which cost the majority so much labor; it is the needless trimmings—the depraved appetites.

"SAMBO, where is your master?"—"Gone out." "Has he left off drinking yet?" "Oh yes! he leave off two, three times dis mornin."

AN editor speaking of a drink he once had occasion to indulge in, says he couldn't tell whether it was brandy or a torchlight procession going down his throat.

A young man in Chicopee, who attempted to kiss a young lady; slipped and fell, losing his kiss and two front teeth. Poor fellow? And what a disappointment to the young lady.

THE following notice was posted up in the county of Kent: "Notice is hereby given, that the Marquis of Camden (on account of the backwardness of the harvest) will not shoot himself nor any of his tenants till the 14th of September."

Mrs. Speckles says that the best vegetable pill that has yet been invented to destroy a gnawing at the stomach is an apple dumpling. It is the only pill that can be relied on.

In one of our large cities a short time ago a Western editor was met by afriend, who taking him by the hand, exclaimed:

'I am delighted to see you. How long are you going to stay?'

'Why I think,' said the editor, I shall stay while my money lasts.'

'How disappointed I am,' said the friend, 'I hoped you were going to stay a day or two.'

A Boston spinster, at a recent woman's rights convention, said she did not care about female suffrage unless it carried with it the right to make proposals of marriage. A good Union woman, that.

A colored firm having suffered some pecuniary embarrasments closed business, and the senior member gave the public the following note:

"Desolution of coparships heretofore resisting twixt me and Moses Jones de barber profession, am heretofore received. Pussons who oes must pay de scriber. Dem what de firm oes must call on Jones, as de firm is insolved."

WILLIAMSTON, MARTIN CO., February 22nd, 1869.

MR. JNO. R. CONGLETON, RALEIGH, N. C.

Dear Sir:—For the last eight or ten years I have been exceedingly troubled with a painful and distressing case of the Piles. Hearing "Congleton's Vegetable Salve" spoken so highly of as the great cure for Piles, I purchased in March, 1868, while in Washington, N. C, one box, and was soon relieved, and by the time I had used the contents of the box, I was perfectly well, and have never had any return since. I consider myself entirely and permanently cured. I give this for the benefit of those who may be troubled with the same disease, believing thereby that I will be benefiting them, and recommending to them a most valuable medicine and worthy of great praise.

I have also used the salve for Sore Throat and find it the best medicine I ever had in my family for that complaint.

Respectfully yours,
JAS H ELLISON.

TESTIMONIALS:

RALEIGH N. C, Jan 16, 1869.

MR CONGLETON:—On the 14th inst., I came to town with considerable pain and swelling in my right knee I got a bottle of the "American Rheumatic Liniment" and applied it to my knee, which was greatly relieved and assuaged in ten hours. I then applied it again and by night was so far cured as to forget to apply the remedy: this pain had resisted the application of Liquid Opodeldoc for a week without any perceptible improvement, causing a limp in my walk at sometime and fears of inability to walk at all.

Respectfully,
THOS BAILY,
Book Agent, Dayton, N. C.

WAKE COUNTY, N. C., Feb. 24th, 1869.

MR. CONGLETON:—Dear Sir: My little son was for four months suffering with pain in his legs and weakness in his knees so he scarcely could get about and walked with a limp. I was fearful that he would lose the use of his legs entirely, which gave me a great deal of pain and anxiety, hearing of the American Rheumatic Liniment, I purchased one bottle and commenced using it, and by the time I had used half of the bottle my son was greatly relieved and could walk very well, and after using the whole bottle, he is now perfectly well, with many thanks to you and praises for the "American Rheumatic Liniment" I am yours, &c.,

Scrofula, or King's Evil, is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which genders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this everywhere prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only Scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERUPTIVE and SKIN DISEASES, ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, TETTER, or ERYSIPELAS, PIMPLES, PUSTULES, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER and SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATISM, SYPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIATED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "purity of the blood" is founded in truth. Expel the impurities, and the foundation of the disease is destroyed.

AYER'S

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

We are [redacted] supply a remedy which, while it [redacted] with certainty, is still perfectly harmless in any quantity. Such a remedy is invaluable in districts where these afflicting disorders prevail. This "CURE" expels the miasmatic poison of FEVER AND AGUE from the system, and prevents the development of the disease, if taken on the first approach of its premonitory symptoms. It is not only the best remedy ever yet discovered for this class of complaints, but also the cheapest. The large quantity we supply for a dollar brings it within the reach of every body; and in bilious districts, where FEVER AND AGUE prevails, every body should have it and use it freely both for cure and protection. A great superiority of this remedy over any other ever discovered for the speedy and certain cure of Intermittents is that it contains no Quinine or mineral, consequently it produces no quinism or other injurious effects whatever upon the constitution. Those cured by it are left as healthy as if they had never had the disease.

Fever and Ague is not alone the consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and consequently cures them all alike. It is an invaluable protection to immigrants and persons travelling or temporarily residing in the malarious districts. If taken occasionally or daily while exposed to the infection, that will be excreted from the system, and cannot accumulate in sufficient quantity to ripen into disease. Hence it is even more valuable for protection than cure, and few will ever suffer from Intermittents if they avail themselves of the protection only affords.
